

General

- Open to all students, faculty, staff, and individuals currently associated with Sacramento State.
- Entries must be original works.
- No entry accepted for exhibition may be withdrawn before the closing date of the exhibition.
- Acceptable media includes any permanent material safe for public display.
- Entries must be two-dimensional. Two-dimensional is defined as any work executed on flat media or sculpture which is designed to be mounted on a wall, is made of a permanent and durable material, and does not protrude from the wall or have protruding parts to the extent which would cause potential harm to the public or the piece.
- Two-dimensional sculptures will be accepted at the sole discretion of the exhibit organizer.
- Entries must be ready for hanging with suitable hardware in place (canvases on stretchers, photographs and works on paper should be framed or clipped behind glass, plexi, or equivalent.)
- All entries must be dry.
- If more entries are submitted than can be exhibited in the space, organizers will determine which entries will be displayed.
- Exhibit organizers reserve the right to not display any artwork submitted for any reason.
- Only entries submitted with a completed submission form will be accepted for display.

Delivery and Pick Up of Work

Entries will be accepted at the Political Science Department main office at Tahoe Hall 3104 during a four-day period: Monday, September 23 through Thursday, September 26. The office is open 8:00 am to 5:00 pm, and closed for lunch between 12:00 and 1:00 pm. You can contact the Political Science Department main office at: (916) 278-6202.

Entry deadline is Thursday, September 26 by 4:00 pm.

Do not leave artwork outside the office. Submit artwork to office staff.

You will be notified via email if your work was selected or not.

Artists not chosen for the show must pick up their pieces from the Political Science Department main office (Tahoe 3104) by October 11.

After the show, work can be picked up at the Political Science Department main office (Tahoe 3104) during its regular business hours from November 11 through November 27. Photo I.D. must be presented when picking up entries.

Entries not picked up by 5:00pm on Wednesday, November 27 will be considered abandoned, and become the property of the Political Science Department and Project for an Informed Electorate (PIE) and may be disposed of at the discretion of the exhibit organizers.

Responsibility

Every reasonable precaution will be taken. The Political Science Department and the Project for an Informed Electorate (PIE) assume no responsibility for loss or damage.
